PRICE CONTEXT	DEFINED SCOPE	SMALL-BUSINESS FIT	HONEST LIMIT
Six published indicative ranges make an early fit check possible.	The published process moves from consultation to a clear fixed-fee proposal.	The stated audience is UK startups, sole traders and small limited companies.	Final fees depend on scope, transaction volume and complexity.

Know the published range before discussing the scope.

Clarentis publishes indicative figures across monthly support, VAT, payroll, Self-Assessment and MTD setup. Final pricing follows a review of the actual work.

IDEAL FOR

- Early budget screening
- Comparing service categories
- Preparing scope questions

WHAT THE SERVICE INCLUDES

- Sole trader / micro-business: £60 - £150 per month
- Small limited company: £100 - £350 per month
- VAT returns: £70 - £100 per quarter
- Payroll: £40 - £120 per month
- Self-Assessment: £150 - £300+
- MTD setup: £75 - £160 one-off

IMPORTANT QUALIFIER

Every figure is indicative. Clarentis says volume, complexity and scope determine the final quote.

Bring the real task into focus before discussing a package.

The published service list spans business setup, routine records and recurring submissions. A useful enquiry names the business type, current process, deadlines and the support required.

INDEPENDENT DEMONSTRATION

Test the enquiry journey without contacting Clarentis.

The demonstration form stores fictional details only in its own CRM. It does not call, email, submit to or notify Clarentis, and it does not request real advice.

1 Use fictional details

Do not enter real customer, employee, payroll, tax or financial information.

2 Confirm the receipt

Success appears only after the demonstration CRM accepts the submission.

3 Clean up after testing

Remove the synthetic contact from the CRM after verification.

Use synthetic details in the demo
